1. LO called SIMONS at home 1115 Sunday, Dec. 7 Warsaw time and asked to come to Embassy at 1200. He was accompanied by junior officer LIU, who said he was newly arrived and whom LO described as "colleague" and "employee (of Embassy)." Met by SIMONS and CHAMPEAU.

2. LO handed Simons Chinese original and English translation of letter with following text. BEGIN QUOTE:

Mr. Walter J. Stoessel, Jr., Ambassador of the United States of America to Poland, Warsaw. Mr. Ambassador, I have been instructed to inform you of the following:

Two Americans, Simeon Baldwin and Bessie Hope Donald,
illegally intruded into China's territorial sea off Chuhai County of Kwangtung Province in a yacht on February 16, 1969, and were detained by our local civil policemen. After examination and verification of the above by the Chinese authorities concerned, the two Americans admitted their mistake of intruding into our territorial sea and were released together with their yacht on December 7, 1969. (Signed) Lei Yang, Charge d'Affaires a.i. of the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Poland. December 7, 1969. END QUOTE. Originals follow by pouch.

3. After leaving room for <sup>consultation</sup> ~~consultation~~ with me while tea served, Simons returned and made following statement, which he asked be repeated and whose exact wording interpreter took down in pencil. BEGIN QUOTE. We are glad to receive this news and shall report it to our government. Concerning the matter about which we recently spoke, I hope you noticed that we did not make the content of that conversation public (nie podalismy tresci tej rozmowy do wiadomosci publicznej.). I am authorized to say that we shall not make the content of that conversation public, and also to say that that communication was serious. END QUOTE after assuring himself that "communication" referred to what Amb said to interpreter Sec. 3, he said he would report what Minons said to Charge d'Affaires. Took leave immediately thereafter.

1. Atmosphere of meeting was easy and even cordial, with both Chinese engaging in non-substantive small talk with Champeau. On way out he asked why they had been received at side rather than main entrance. It was explained that main entrance not used Saturdays and Sundays and that in view short notice there had been no time clean off heavy snow which has been falling since yesterday in Warsaw. Car was waiting in street rather than in Embassy parking where it had been left, so Minons accompanied visitors to street.
